

Our Endeavours

Sirpikal ran a Tamil Presenter workshop for the National Library Board's inaugural Mother Tongue Festival on 11 September at Ang Mo Kio Public Library. Children learnt how to be fluent in the language and have stage presence through fun activities. Our sincere thanks to the volunteers who helped to facilitate the students.

Bonding session during the retreat at Batam.

Our member Kalaiarasan has been recognized for his efforts in dance choreography for school competition and for winning the Championship for 3 years. Way to go!

Sirpikal artistes were invited to participate in the Sree Maha Mariamman Temple annual fete in Senai, Johor Bahru. It was a great opportunity to entertain our friends across the causeway together with Malaysian artistes.

Our very first Navarathiri programme at Sri Vairavimada Kalliamman Temple and various National Day and Deepavali shows were coordinated by Sirpikal. Our members and artistes managed the events and entertained the audience.
