

Moving forward..

“Individual commitment to a group effort, that is what makes a team work, a company work, a society work, a civilization work.”

~ Vince Lombardi

As we move forward into 2011, I am pleased to note that Sirpígal has kicked off the year with good media coverage on Enna Nadakkuthu Vasantham TV show. Members and artistes took time off to be a part of this interview cum performance. It gave us a good opportunity to share who we are and what we do. Sirpígal has also started coordinating various cultural shows. We will also be organizing various events for the Sunlove Home residents whom we have adopted till midyear.

Even though I missed the Sirpígal year end gathering, I am glad that many of our members, some from the other side of the causeway, came with their family and friends and had a good time. Congratulations to all who received tokens of appreciation and certificates of commendation. I hope to see more members receiving such accolades this year. I also thank all for their feedback that was given during the gathering. I assure you that it has been collated and discussed. The management committee will be working on some issues that you have pointed out so that we can continue to improve.

On the same note, I also urge more members to take a step further and come forward to be a part of various sub committees that plan and execute projects. This will create opportunities to understand how the committees work and what constraints they face. Just as how it takes two hands to clap, we need the members and the committee to work closely so that we can continue to make our presence felt.

The Sirpígal Annual General Meeting is coming up this year. This is another opportunity for the committee to interact with you. Do join us to share your views and suggestions. Let's work hand in hand for a successful 2011!
