We are 4!

As Sirpibal turns four years old, allow me to look back at the path we have journeyed last year. 2010 has been a busy year for Sirpibal. We started the year with various exciting shows coordinated for Ponggal, Tamil New Year and then Deepavali. For the very first time, Sirpibal had come up with t-shirts for its members. There is a strong feeling of solidarity when we wear them for our events.

Sirpibal also gained exposure by being a part of various fund raisers namely; Tamil Murasu 75th Anniversary-Tamils in Nation Building Concert and Maha Mariamman Temple fund raising concert. This year, we celebrated the Sirpibal Reading Club 2nd Anniversary. It was heartening to see members working together for this event which garnered a lot of media publicity for Sirpibal.

I am glad to note that Sirpibal had continuously been involved in community service in 2010. We befriended and entertained the Jamiyah home residents. We also hosted the Sunlove Home residents during the Perumal Temple Purattaasi Saturday prayers.

Another unforgettable moment was when Sirpibal artistes participated in Utsav – Deepavali Street Parade 2010. I want to thank all members who made possible these events and more! We will continue to work towards promoting the arts, community engagement and lifelong learning among our members.

Do remember to make a date with us on Dec 3 as we bid farewell to 2010. We will be giving away tokens of appreciation to deserving members. As we turn four years, I want to thank you for being a part of the Sirpibal family. On behalf of the management committee, happy 2011!
